One Man Show at Elliott Fouts Gallery 2011

Upcoming show

Throughout September, Bryan will have 31 works on display for his one-man show at Elliott Fouts Gallery in Sacramento. The show features signature works of the city of San Francisco, California farmlands, and the Pacific Coast. The show includes many paintings that were completed on location as well as a number of larger works painted in the studio. The show will be reviewed in the September issue of American Art Collector Magazine and can be previewed online at bryanmarktaylor.blogspot.com

Recent Awards and Recognitions

Bryan has had a busy summer painting in Colorado, Utah and Maryland. He won "First Place" in the Easton Plein Air Festival Quick Draw Competition and "Jurors Coice" at the Napa Valley Art Festival.

Summer Tour

This summer Bryan has traveled extensively to various beautiful locations across the west as well as a trip to the east coast. He enjoys the adventure and variety these new locations provide. He says "painting in a different climate with new subject matter helps keep my eye and work fresh and provides ample challenge for me to keep growing as a painter." Visit his blog at www.bryanmarktaylor.blogspot.com to see works from his summer travels. Bryan is as busy as ever and in addition to his other galleries, he is now showing work at Pacific Edge Gallery in Laguna Beach. Bryan will also be one of the featured master plein air artists at the Plein Air Convention 2012 held in Las Vegas, Nevada on April 12-15 sponsored by Plein Air Magazine.
